Pin Point Fire Cause

In a recent bulletin to all PMQ above, school age children receive occupants, stress was made on instructions in fire safety from the numerous fires that had been caused in Alberta Area by children playing with cigarette lighters and matches.

The circular stated in part "Parents are primarily responsible for instructing their children in the dangers involved and in preventing them from having access to matches and lighters."

in the photo, the Griesbach Fire Department gave a fire fighting demonstration to the students from the Griesbach Schools.

In requesting parental assistance in fire prevention it was emphasized that "parents must take positive, energetic and continuous action to eliminate fires from this cause."

The Library Corner

Now that winter is approaching and evenings are longer we are looking forward to increased adult borrowing from the Griesbach Community Library. To this end, the library committee is selecting over 200 new books which should be on the shelves by the end of November — watch the Bugle for news of their arrival.

Book donations from the following residents are gratefully acknowledged: Lt. J. Honey, Ssgt. G. Smith and Mrs. F. Clarke.

There is always a shortage of helping hands at the library. We need volunteers as: assistants to work two or three evenings a month; typists (with typewriters) to do registrations and cataloguing at home; book repairers. Except for typing, no experience is required — we teach you. For details: call Mrs. Kearney at 474-4762 about becoming a library assistant; call Maj. Hodge GR 9-8411, loc. 348 or 474-6936 concerning typing or repairing books.

'Teen Project Imminent

A long standing need by the younger generation in Griesbach may soon be realized with the construction of a Teenage Community Project which recently received approval in principle.

The building for the centre will be located immediately North of the Library mid-way between the north and south residential sections. It will be a General Purpose Hut of similar construction to the library and contain Maple Leaf Services sundries outlet and Snack Bar and a recreational area for Young Peoples groups.

A portion of the construction will be a self help project and some of the housekeeping duties will be the responsibility of the Teen group.

Target date for completion has been tentatively set for December.

The Lord Strathcona's reconnaissance squadron has been patrolling a sector of the Egyptian-Israeli border since February 1962.

Many Respond to Medical Emergency

EDMONTON — A heart-warming response to an appeal for blood to assist in a delicate heart operation on a child was given recently by soldiers from the Canadian Army's Western Command Headquarters in Edmonton.

Thirty soldiers pledged to donate blood to four-year-old Gregory Hisdale, son of Corporal V. A. Hisdale of the Edmonton Provost Detachment, who underwent a delicate heart operation.

In a matter of hours after it was learned transfusions would be needed, more than the required number of donors were standing by.

Gregory has had the heart condition since birth, but doctors advised the parents to wait until the child was older and strong enough to undergo surgery.

PPCLI Band Plans Musical Feast For Griesbach Residents

The PPCLI Band will play a particularly for this medium. Varying in content from the humorous descriptive to the deep vibrancy of the great classical compositions, a programme of music presented by a military band can give appeal to an audience containing widely divergent musical taste.

The forthcoming concerts have been planted with a view to increase the scope and presentation if they meet with success. It is hoped to bring in solo performers from the city to appear with the band as guest artists. Naturally, a great amount of rehearsal is entailed by such concerts, but such efforts reap a tremendous reward in that it furthers the musical zeal of a community and fosters an interest for music in its youth.

The PPCLI Band has travelled extensively, but somehow, Griesbach community rarely gets the chance to hear this band that has been stationed on its doorsteps for the past four years. The band stages annual music appreciation concerts for the school children, but these of course have been limited to grade school audiences for educational purposes. Canadian Army Bands in general maintain a high standard of musicianship and one can always expect a professional performance from such bands. The PPCLI Band is a well-trained group of skilled instrumentalists that, under its Director of Music, Captain H. A. Jeffrey, will reward audiences of the coming concerts with the sound of good music played with faultless style and executed in capable mood.

It is not widely understood that a military band (the term 'military' in this title is a musical technicality, not an 'army' reference) is one of the most versatile of the combinations of instrumental performers that attempt to interpret music to the listener. It encompasses a range of sound that, from the low sonority of the tuba to the high shrillness of the piccolo, is pleasantly tolerable to the human ear.

Known mainly for the brilliant sound of 'marches', the military band has a repertoire that has expanded over the years from early transcriptions of orchestral classics to modern music written

NEWS FROM P. P. C. L. I. DEPOT

If this weather keeps up the recruits will be asking for their summer leave in 1963 instead of next year.

Some of the Depot staff managed to get to Victoria to witness 1 PPCLI Trooping and Farewell to Victoria and Esquimalt celebrations which included the unveiling of a stone plaque commemorating the presentation of Colours by the Queen in 1959 and a Beating Retreat on Beacon Hill. This was a terrific display by the RCN Band, the PPCLI Band and both battalion Corps of Drums.

A new recruit platoon has been formed. This platoon (Korea) started training on 11 Oct., 1963.

After many trying days of waiting, Sgt. and Mrs. H. E. Smith are the proud parents of a son born 17 Oct., 1963. Well done wishes are extended to both Mom and Dad. Sure a sneaky way of getting nine days leave.

Welcome wishes are extended to Lt. and Mrs. A. G. S. Ferguson who have just been posted in from Chilliwack complete with family and tons of frozen food, we all hope your electricity doesn't fail.

Our CO, Major G. E. Henderson has been selected as one of Directing Staff for the Officer Part II examinations at the RCS of 1 Oct. to 07 Nov., 1963.

Latest rumor circulating around the Depot these days is that we are going to have a green Christmas.

Nose for News

A reporter from a big-city newspaper stopped to visit with a friend who operated a little country weekly. He asked his friend, "How can you keep up your circulation in a town where everyone knows what everyone else is doing?"

The editor grinned and said: "They know what everyone's doing, all right, but they read the paper to see who's been caught at it!"

Combine eggs, fowl, onion, celery and bean sprouts. Heat Oil in large skillet or griddle. Dip out 1/4 cup of egg-chicken mixture and pour into skillet. Use a broad spatula to push cooked egg up over the uncooked mixture to make a thin patty. Make other patties in the same way. When patties are set, turn to brown the other side.

Serve hot with Soy Sauce (recipe follows). (Makes 12 patties).

HOT SOY SAUCE

5 tsp. soy sauce	2 tsp. vinegar
2 tsp. corn starch	3/4 tsp. salt
2 tsp. sugar	1 cup cold water

1/2 cup chopped green pepper	1/8 tsp. black pepper
1 1/2 cups hot water	3 large carrots, in chunks
2 beef bouillon cubes	6 medium-size onions

Wash kidneys; split lengthwise, remove outer and white membranes, tuck; soak in cold salted water 30 min. Rinse, cut into 1 inch cubes. Scute green pepper 10 min., add kidney, scute 3 min. Add remaining ingredients, simmer 30 - 35 min. Thicken with flour-water mixture, boil 1 min. Makes 4 servings.

SAUERBRATEN

1 onion, sliced	1 lemon
2 tbsp. sugar	cooking oil or fat
2 tsp. salt	8 gingersnaps, crumbled
	10 peppercorns (unground pepper)

Place meat in large bowl or crock. In a saucepan, combine the next eight ingredients. Heat to boiling point. Cool slightly. Pour over meat in bowl. Cut lemon into 1/4 inch slices and place in marinade around meat. Cover bowl and keep in refrigerator for 3 days, turning meat over once a day. Remove meat from marinade and drain well. Brown it in a small amount of oil in a dutch oven or similar deep pot. Strain marinade and add a cupful to the meat. Cover the pot and simmer over very low heat (Do Not Boil), until meat is fork-tender — 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Add more marinade, if necessary, during cooking. Add vegetables, such as carrots and potatoes, during last half hour of cooking, if desired.

Remove meat to hot platter. Thicken liquid in pot for gravy by stirring in a little flour blended with cold water. Stir in crumbled gingersnaps.

NOTE: In Germany potato dumplings are often served with this Sauerbraten.

EAGLE DAY WINS TROPHY

Quarterback Eagle Day of the Calgary Stampeders football club was presented with the Jeff Nicklin Memorial Trophy at the Thanksgiving Day game in Calgary between the Stampeders and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. The presentation took place during half time activities.

The trophy is in memory of Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. "Jeff" Nicklin, well known and immensely popular member of the pre-war Winnipeg Blue Bombers who was killed during a parachute drop at the crossing of the Rhine River in Germany, March 24th, 1954. He was appointed Commanding Officer of the 1st Canadian Parachute Battalion a short time before he was killed, and was of the first Canadian soldiers to parachute onto German soil in 1945.

Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel E. M. K. MacGregor, Commanding Officer of the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, the trophy is awarded annually to the player rated most valuable to his team in the Western Football Conference and was awarded on Thanksgiving Day for the 1962 football season. Selection of the winner of the Jeff Nicklin Trophy is made by a ballot of sportswriters and sportscasters in Western Canada.

CURLING

Inside the clubroom at the rink
Are benches in a row,
Where fellows sit to watch the game,
While wreaths of smoke they blow;
And if you really want to learn
The fine points of the play,
Don't shoot your rocks, just stay inside.

And listen to what they say.

So light your pipe and take a seat,
Where it is warm and nice,
Where better games are always curled

Than out upon the ice;
For soon you'll hear, "He's narrow sure,
He's coming down too hard,
No, no, don't sweep — just let
it go,
He's going to get the guard."

"Say, watch that guy, the twists
he makes
In his delivery.

He'll tie himself into a knot
If he should draw the tee.
He's wide, he's slow — oh, let
it hog,

He never got the broom.
There's no excuse to miss that shot,
He sure had lots of room."

"Now what's he playing that shot for?
What can he be about?"

He ought to throw a running shot
And take that rock right out.
He'll never get it with that ice—
Well, look at what he struck,
He got it after all but then,
He had a lot of luck."
But when these men are called to play,
These curlers skilled and wise,
They make the very same mistakes,
As those they criticize.
They find it takes but little skill,
To dissipate advice,
And play a scientific game,
When they are off the ice.
So, as we pass along life's way,
And as we hear men talk,
We're always skilful when we throw
The other fellow's rock.
This disposition is not strange,
Through life it's much the same—
We're always wisest when we skip
The other fellow's game.

E. J. MUNSON.

ST. JOHN'S CHAPEL SUNDAY SCHOOL

Many parents do not realize the importance of their part in the Christian education of children. They regard the Sunday School as an agency to serve them and their children. Parents should realize that it is they who are accountable to God for the Christian nurture of their children. This they declared when the child was baptized. The Sunday School can help parents in discharging this obligation. The teacher in the Sunday School can introduce the child to a knowledge about God, man's relation to God, the Bible, the church, and the meaning of Christian living. It is the purpose of the Sunday School to help the child have a Christian attitude toward himself and others. The parents can now take over and further the work of the Sunday School by setting an example in Christian living both in the home and by accompanying the children on Sunday morning and leaving them at the Sunday School and then continuing on to church. Let us therefore work in our homes to assist the teacher in ensuring that our children's Christian education does not begin and end with Sunday School but is carried on every day throughout the year.

ANNUAL BAZAAR

Bless husbands! Aren't they wonderful, — sometimes? Annually, for a period of four to six weeks, these 'bazaar widowers' uncomplaining eat beans three nights a week and macaroni the other four. It's very seldom that you will hear a discerning remark as they know bazaar time is drawing near and pretty soon it will be over and the "lady of the house" will make it up to him by making him a big lemon or blueberry pie. Besides being so understanding, a great many of the husbands of W.A. members are walking around with a cut or bruise, or paint under the fingernails from helping out when a hammer, paint brush, etc., is needed, because after all "it is for a good cause".

I wonder how many people realize what this "good cause" is. I am sure a great number of people have often wondered why an Army chapel W.A. is in need of raising money, after all the majority of items that the chapel or the chaplains need are supplied and on civilian street this is what a W.A. is for. We, however, along with other Women's Auxiliaries, Guilds, etc., who are attached to Service chapels have a project very dear to all our hearts. This project is aimed at helping the Indian missions of Ludhiana and Vellore. These two Christian hospitals have been built in India for a variety of reasons — the obvious one being to relieve the pain and suffering of the ill where possible; to teach the people of India about Christianity and also to train the people as nurses, doctors and technicians and thus in turn help themselves.

So won't you come out to our Bazaar on 16 November and help make it possible for us to help the less fortunate people at Ludhiana and Vellore. We are sure you will find many new and exiting items to please you, your family and friends. How about a nice apron for Mom, or a jar of jelly, a box of shortbread or a box of candy for Aunt Mary. It is also a wonderful place for the small fry to do their Christmas shopping as there is a corner just for them where the highest priced article is just 25c. Also we hope you will visit one of our two Tea Rooms — tickets are only 35c for adults and 15c for children under 12 when accompanied by an adult.

Remember the bazaar is from 2 to 5 p.m. on 16 Nov. in the Auditorium of No. 1 School.

P.S. Have you remembered to order your Christmas cakes, puddings and shortbread yet? If you haven't how about giving Mrs. Harmer a call at 479-6094.

DEDICATE WINDOW

A stained glass window presented by the Women's Auxiliary was dedicated last month at St. John's Chapel Griesbach by Colonel The Reverend J. R. ## C.W.A. NEWS

The C.W.A. of Our Lady of Fatima Chapel met in the Chaplain's quarters for their monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 1st, 1963. It was encouraging to see so many new faces!

We regret an omission in the roster of new officers, in the last report of our "news". Mrs. L. Laboucane is the new Vice-President for coming season. It was necessary to vote in a Treasurer at this meeting in view of the fact Mrs. McHugh is unable to take over as she had hoped. Nominations were open for Treasurer and Mrs. B. Richardson was elected.

The possibility of a parish social was discussed as a means to welcome new parishioners and become reacquainted with the not-so-new. Father Labrie planned on taking this matter up with the Church committee for their views. It was generally thought a nice idea!

Parishioners will no doubt be sorry to hear that Father Belanger is leaving us for a posting to Germany. Father, who has been with us since the Fall of 1959, expects to be leaving the latter part of November or early December. Long-time residents of the camp know that Father, in his official capacity, has been Chaplain to the PPCLI and Depot. However, Father has worked untiringly in the parish and has been dedicated to the spiritual welfare of all his parishioners. Our best wishes go to you Father — we hope you will be happy in your new posting!

All ladies of the Chapel are cordially invited to join the C.W.A. Our next monthly meeting will be held Tuesday, November 5th. We hope to see you then!

Boss: "Get my broker, — Miss Smith."

Miss Smith. "Yes, sir, stock or pawn?"

Dear Kit:

I can still remember the first time my mother used credit . . . or as we called it then . . . the deferred payment plan. It was in the "Hungry Thirties" and she and Dad decided to buy a washing machine. They went down to the store, filled in a two-page questionnaire, gave four character references, put up the house as security, found $50.00 as down payment and lo-and-behold . . . the Credit Manager of the store (after two weeks' investigation) finally agreed to finance the balance of $85.00 at 15.00 a month.

What a difference today! Even our son Jimmy can get a credit card. No kidding!!! As I write this letter I am reading an advertisement from a Montreal newspaper. It reads as follows:

The girl friend: — I like my boy friend smartly dressed all the time. He is reliable and I think it's wonderful that he can have his very own charge account, even if he is under 21. Honestly, every time he shops with his "Junior Leader" credit card he looks even dreamier than before!

The boy friend: — Well, what can I do? I have to use my "Junior Leader" credit card so that I can look smart like the rest of the fellows — and it will be easier paying for them just a little at a time.

Pretty grim stuff, eh Kit?

I've done some research on this credit business and I think you'll be interested. There are actually five kinds of credit available for you-and-me.

CHARGE ACCOUNTS:

A store store give you a charge plate and you can load up. Then you sit and wait for the bill at the end of the month. The one redeeming feature of the charge account is that it does not bear interest . . . so long as you pay the full amount on time. If you don't pay up the whole amount, your little old charge account turns into something else — a revolving budget.

REVOLVING BUDGETS:

This simply means that you agree to pay a specified amount each month — say $40.00 — and the store will allow you to have an outstanding balance of $400.00. It's only natural that the store should charge you interest on this balance—often as much as 1 1/2% per month — or something like 18% per annum. Of course, the revolving budget is mainly used for the purchase of small items. To quote a phrase Georgie picked up somewhere: "if you use your revolving budget in the Drug Department you will end up paying interest charges on your tooth paste".

CONDITIONAL SALES CONTRACTS:

This is the kind of contract most of us use when we purchase a large item . . . in fact, it is the kind my mother and father used when they bought the washing machine. I find the real danger in these contracts is the cost, sometimes referred to as interest, carrying charges, or service charges. These can run all the way from 18% to as much as 40%. I guess the secret is to shop for the price of the credit contract as well as for the price of the goods.

It is certainly true from my research that some dealers are making as much money on their credit terms as they are on the sale of the goods themselves. And of course there is something called the "dealer's kickback" which I am told simply means that some dealers will sell an article, finance it for you through a finance company, charge let us say 24% and after you have paid back the full amount in the contract, the finance company refunds part of the finance charge to the dealer.

ADD-ON CONTRACTS:

I had one of these. We opened an account at a furniture store to buy a chesterfield suite. The store kept bugging us to get more furniture, and simply add on the amount to be existing account. I found two things were happening. First, the store was charging us 30% for financing. Honestly, it's true. I bought two blankets, some sheets and some pillow cases one day for a total of 124.00. When the bill came in at the end of the month, I found that the store had added $7.20 as finance charges. I found also that the store had repossession rights on everything we had ever purchased under the contract even though we had paid for them completely. I'd hate to think what would happen if we missed a few payments!

UNIVERSAL CREDIT:

This was what Georgie calls "instant money". He picked up an application for this type of credit deal the other day. Frankly I was flabbergasted! I found that if we wanted to sign on the dotted line we could forget all about cash — and buy everything on tick. We would simply have to sign chits not just for groceries, hardware and spare parts for the jalopy — but for restaurant meals, drug store items, and at the hair dressers, theatre and the book store — and to think you can buy all of these things and have them centralized in one monthly billing.

The contract also says: "Service charges may be levied not in excess of those permitted by law." This is a laugh! There isn't any law governing service charges. I guess it's whatever the traffic will bear.

Anyway, whenever I look at this jungle — you know — charge-plates — revolving budgets — conditional sale contracts — add on contracts — universal credit and even teenage credit cards — I get a little confused and then I remember my mother and father.

Nobody could find $135.00 to buy a washing machine in the depression years. This is why consumer credit was invented and so far as I am concerned it is the best and perhaps the only valid reason why the Joe Blows and Jane Does of this world should use credit. In my books there's nothing wrong with using credit — but, surely we must use it with discretion. Maybe, only when we need some essential item and we don't have the cash to get it right away.

One thing is very clear to me. Before a person decides to use these fancy kinds of credit — he or she should take every precaution to ensure that they understand the terms, conditions, repossession rights, costs and other factors.

Oh well, as the guy says: "the trouble with life is you always have too much month left over at the end of your money."

Best regards to all. Sincerely,
Myrt.

SCOUT NEWS

by David Sibley

Greetings from the Iroquois Troop, 1st Griesbach. Many of you may wonder what the Iroquois Troop is. The name for the troop was acquired in an unusual manner. Our Skipper, Sgt. Swan, wrote to the Chief of the Six Nations Indians, (The Iroquois League, in Brantford, Ontario, requesting permission to use Iroquois as the Troop name, and the use of four tribe names of the Iroquois League, for Patrol Names. The request was granted, and the Scoutmaster now has this letter from the Chief of the Iroquois in his possession. The names of the patrols and their Patrol Leader are as follows: Cayuga Patrol, David Sibley; Tuscarora Patrol, Bob Swan; Seneca Patrol Richard Pierce; and Mohawk Patrol, Daryl Wilson. Our Troop Leader is Dick Wasney.

On the last weekend of September the Patrol Leaders, Troop

Leader, S. M. Swan and A. S. M. Sutton went on an overnight camp at Poole-Barker Scout Camp on Lake Wabamun. The objective of the camp was to find and locate springs in the camp area for Regional Council, and to locate and chop down a suitable tree to be used for a Troop Flag Stand. The latter was the only one in which we succeeded.

During September a few badges and cords were earned and presented. Daryl Wilson was presented with his "B" Cord. A Red and white lanyard worn by First Class Scouts that have 12 or more Proficiency Badges. Larry Sales earned his Cub Instructors Badge. Bob Swan earned his Second Class, which allows scouts to wear proficiency badges. David Sibley was presented his Marksmanship badge.

The members of the Iroquois Troop thank the PMQ residents for their kind co-operation and participation in the milk bottle and coat hanger drive that the boys of the troop put on.

GALA EVENING

Members of Alberta Signal Squadron gathered for an evening dance and supper at the PPCLI Lounge 11 October 1963 to celebrate the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals 60th Anniversary.

Invitations were extended serving officers formerly of RC SIGS and their wives. Those attending as guests of honour included Brigadier and Mrs. G. C. Leech, Colonel P. D. Smith, and Lieutenant Colonel W. S. Hamilton. Among others in attendance were Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. D. Grant, Captain R. W. Baldwin, OC 8 Independent Signal Squadron and WO 1 S. Reading of Alberta Area Instructional Staff.

Following introductions at the head table, Colonel Smith spoke briefly on the 60th Anniversary of the Corps and it being the oldest Signal Corps in the Commonwealth and 3rd largest Corps in Canadian Army whose strength presently exceeds that of the PF prior to the war. He then made a presentation to WO 1 W. J. Stanley on behalf of friends in the Alberta Signal Squadron. Mr. Stanley received an electric shaver and a mother of pearl cuff link set as a memento of his many years with the Squadron.

Numerous prizes were awarded at the door throughout the evening and more were won by couples in "spot dancing". Mrs. D. G. Green was awarded a beautiful table lamp and Mrs. Perrins won a very attractive set of earnings and broach.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves and reports indicate most are looking forward to another evenings festivity around Christmas. Success of the function was due mainly to the most capable management of WO 1 E. A. Nye and his assembly of efficient, industrious assistants.

Their first tour out west, Chuk is being employed at Command Records Office and residing in PMQs. * * * * For others too things are tough all over. Sgt. Owen Lackenbauer from Command Public Relations somewhat reluctantly left for a P. R. course in New York last month. Don't fight it, boy! * * * *

We're still trying to determine who was remiss in failing to report the front page story of the appointment of Mrs. Sheila Debney as Guide Commissioner for our area. It was an oversight we truly regret. A mother of three children and still finds time to devote to the community, they reside a PMQ 523 * * * *

More than one organization within camp is going to feel the absence of Mrs. Gwen Kitchen when of it.

she departs for Victoria, B.C., at year end after return of her husband from Egypt. * * * * *

A first for the Command Junior Ranks last month was the appointment of their only RCAF member, Cpl. Paul Primeau, to the office of PMC. A toast to the junior service!

* * * * In the local-boy-makes-good department we have a former resident and student 2/Lt. D. M. Lewis returning here for a tour of duty with the 2 PPCLI. Congratulations, David * * * * We extend a "Welcome Aboard" to S/Sgt. G. W. Woollard as our news representative for the Edmonton Detachment of the Instructional Staff, and to Sgt. Ken Kliewer as 2 PPCLI Sergeants Mess news rep. * * * *

Making with the Erp-Dillon combination, L/Cpl. R. Einarson 2 PPCLI returned from the east last month with the pistol championship under his belt.

TO THE PARENTS This Is Important To You And Yours

Another hockey season will soon be getting under way and our boys will be going out to give their all for their teams. However, although major injuries are relatively few and far between it does not obviate a requirement for preventive measures to ensure a maximum degree of protection for the youngsters.

In this regard it is suggested that the parents ensure that their boys are equipped with the following:

Athletic support with cup.
Head protector helmet (Note: it is mandatory that ALL boy playing hockey be equipped with head protector helmets, by 1 Dec., 1963.)

If your boys are not equipped with these items, the Griesbach Boys' Hockey Association can procure this equipment wholesale with a considerable discount realized by bulk purchase.

It is requested that all parents interested in obtaining these safety items inform the Equipment Manager, Sgt. C. Addison by phone 477-6754 today.

The approximate cost of these items are as follows:

Athletic support with cup — Small $2.25, Large $2.75.
Head protector helmet $3.00

Army Cadet WO 2 Toby Spray of Ottawa found himself a real "pal" while spending a week at the Cadet Bivouac Camp near Banff, Alta. The ground squirrel, nicknamed "Shorty", is everybody's pal as long as peanuts are available. Toby is a student at Ashbury College, Ottawa, attending the Canadian Army's four-week National Cadet Camp at Banff. His father, Maj.-Gen. Spry (retd.), is the director of the Boy Scout World Bureau.

The Voice Of Experience

In 1936, when Simon Bolivar Buckner, later lieutenant general commanding the U.S. forces in Alaska, was attending a refresher course for colonels, a young in structor remarked that Regimental Headquarters should prepare the programs for company trainees, because inexperienced captains might make errors if they did their own.

Up rose Buckner and ended all argument by saying: "Uncle Zeke was known in my Kentucky home town for his wisdom. One day a young friend asked him, 'Uncle Zeke, how come you're so wise?'

"Because I've got good judgement," the old man replied, "Good judgement comes from experience, and experience — well, that comes from poor judgement."

Overheard at a feminine cocktail party: "I always drive with the emergency brake on. When an emergency happens, I am ready."

LOWER-SLOBOVIAN INVADE EDMONTON GARDEN

Sergeant Major John Matheson, Alberta Area Pay Office, Griesbach, thought the "Schmoos" of Lower-Slobovia had invaded his garden at 13223 - 94 St. But prior to sounding the general alarm, a closer check revealed it to be only a two-pound potato.
